starting

My 2013 Hyundai Elantra will not start. Battery tested good at Napa yesterday. The lights and dash come on, car says it's in park (I've tried N as well) Everything is normal with the starting except when the engine is supposed to fire up.

Hyundai Elantra Won't start: causes and solutions

My car won't start. It was left with the contact breaker on for five hours. I assume it is the battery but I have already tried with another one and it does not start, even though all the dashboard lights turn on. It is the first time something like this happens to me, and I don't know if some circuit can be blocked, such as the injectors.

Car won't start — Car Forums at Edmunds.com

I have a 97 accent manual shift. About once a month the car won't start. I crank it, but it won't turn over. I don't have my foot on the gas pedal. If I walk away and return in 10 or 15 minutes, it usually will start, but sometimes it won't so i have to tow it. The starter, plugs, filters, battery etc are all fine.
